WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1897.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1899.

MAYSVILLE, KY., WEDNESDAY, MARCH 2, 1904.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

SPRING IS ON THE WAY.
The sun is swinging North again
And lengthening the day.
And, though our hills are white with snow,
The robins in the Southland know
That spring is on the way.
The breeze will soon blow sweet again
From gardens in the West;
In yonder silent tree ere long
A singer shall pour out his song
Above the guarded nest.
Around their dams the gleeful lambs
Will soon begin to play;
The willows will begin to glow
In golden glory, for they know
That spring is on the way.
In yonder sprawling lilac bush,
So lonely and so bare,
A miracle will soon be shown,
As fragrance lavishly is blown
Upon the grateful air.
The sun is swinging North again
And lengthening the day;
Love brings to me a sweet unrest,
And hope is singing in my breast,
For spring is on the way.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from Bethel Church, Rev. J. M. Price officiating. It will be under the auspices of the U. B. F., and Golden Leaf Camp No. 8.

FOUND THE OWNER

"The Ledger" Restored His Cow to a Court Street Attorney

Chief of Police Donovan put a four-line Local in yesterday's LEDGER, stating that he had a stray cow, and asking for the owner.

In less than half an hour after the paper was on the street, a colored man sailed into the Chief's office, with the polite demand—

"I want to git that cow!"

"Whose cow is it?" asked the Chief.

"Mr. Blanks," replied the visitor, giving the name of a prominent Court street Attorney.

"How did he know I had it?" inquired Captain Donovan.

"Why, he saw it in THE LEDGER," was the reply.

And the colored man followed the cow home.

Moral—THE LEDGER is IT when it comes to getting what you advertise for.

Give him time and our Street Commissioner, Ben Smith, will have a better face on the appearance of things in and about the city.

Managers Russell, Dye and Frank have a telegram from Manager Scott of the Lexington Opera-house saying that "The Little Homestead" played there last night and is a good show. It will be at the Washington Opera-house tonight.

GAVE HIM THE LIMIT

A Wifebeater Given $50 and Costs and Fifty Days in Jail

There was a lurid trial in 'Squire Grant's Court yesterday afternoon.

If the woman told the truth the man in the case is a fit subject for a "sour apple tree;" but there are times and occasions when it is best not to believe all you hear, even though it be a woman who has the say.

Belle Williams, colored, of near Dexter, swore out a warrant against her husband, John, charging him with a breach of the peace.

The testimony was of a much graver character, however, and the central figure around which it tended was her daughter by a former marriage, named Martha Woodlawn, a buxom and good-looking mulatto girl 19 years of age.

The wife and daughter gave damaging evidence against the man, testifying also that they considered their lives in danger at his hands.

The evidence was of a salacious character, and if true the man deserved a great deal more than he got.

It must be said in justice of the accused that he denied their allegations most positively, and introduced a reputable witness who swore to his general good character and worth.

The accused was ably defended by Major M. C. Hutchins, and the state cared for by County Attorney F. P. O'Donnell.

The 'Squire was much incensed, and fined the accused not for what had been brought out in the testimony in regard to the more serious nature of the case, but for striking his wife, that being the charge on which he was tried. He gave him the limit—$50 and costs and fifty days in Jail.

KWONG'S TROUBLES

It Looks As Though They Will Never Come to An End

Lee Kwong, the Chinese laundryman, has had more incidents and excitement crowded into his life since launching his barque on the troubled sea of matrimony than he experienced during his whole life prior to that event.

The many barriers he had to overcome before he succeeded in marrying his wife, then the burning of his laundry on the night of his wedding, is history—but who set fire to his establishment is yet an unsolved mystery.

It is unfortunate, but true, that the Chinaman has allied himself with a bad set, and the sooner he cuts loose from them the sooner he will rehabilitate himself with the good citizens of the community.

Monday night he and his wife visited the home of his mother-in-law, who lives somewhere on the Fleming pike in the suburbs.

Among the honored guests were John T. Younger and Ella, his brunette wife, and Frank Ambrose, together with others of like distinction. After the first greetings and later on in the evening when the festivities were at their height, an argument was sprung as to the ownership of a horse.

During the heated argument and melee, in which both male and female took an active part, revolvers were brandished and a good-sized killing seemed imminent.

The storm blew over, however, and the curtain in the second act of the drama rose in 'Squire Grant's Courtroom yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

After sifting and separating the chaff from the wheat in the voluminous testimony, he got down to business, but before awarding prizes the 'Squire delivered a homily on the virtues and blessings of true domesticity, after which he handed the following prize packages: James Younger, $50 and cost; Ella Younger, $1; Frank Ambrose, $1; and poor Lee, like old dog Tray, drew $1 and trimmings, for being caught in bad company.

Last month was the first time in twelve years that February has had five Mondays, and the same thing will not occur again until 1932.

THE KATZENJAMMER KIDS.

The Katzenjammer Kids Company contains many clever people. Among them are the "Kids" themselves, Gus Alexander and Major Al Ciqui, who play the roles of "Hans" and "Fritz" and they are as full of mischief when off the stage as when on the same. Incidentally it may be mentioned that Major Ciqui enjoys the distinction of being the smallest Elk in this country. At the Opera-house Monday, March 7th.

The Name Witch Hazel.

The name Witch Hazel is much abused. E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, are the inventors of the original and only genuine Witch Hazel Salve, a certain cure for Cuts, Burns, Bruises, Eczema, Tetter, Piles, etc. There are many counterfeits of this salve, some of which are dangerous, while they are all worthless. In buying Witch Hazel Salve see that the name E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, is on the box and a cure is certain. Sold by J. Jas. Wood & Son, Druggists.

In the Middlesboro Jail, awaiting trial at the May term of Court, are thirty prisoners, twenty-four of whom are indicted for murder and the other six for robbery and burglary.

THE LITTLE HOMESTEAD.

The Company which comes to the Opera-house tonight presenting the beautiful emotional rural drama of New England life, "The Little Homestead," headed by William Macauley, has been selected with care as to the fitness of the individuality of the characters to be sustained. The result is manifested by the praise of the public and press. It such capable hands the beautiful story loses none of its refreshing simplicity, nor lacks nothing of sympathy or force its appeal to human interests. It is by the author of The Minister's Son, well known to be W. B. Patton. You will like this play. The Lexington papers say that it is good. Buy your seats now, at Ray's.

Frank Hiles and Miss Bessie F. Estell, both of Johnsonville, Bracken county, were married Monday in Covington.

STOCK SALES

Lively Trading Expected Next Monday, County Court Day

Monday, March 7th, is the regular Mason County Court Day, and, with the coming of spring, it will be a good time to make seasonable purchases.

No better point is possible than in Maysville, and country people from far and near are invited to come in.

For the accommodation of customers from across the river the merchants have arranged for free ferriage for the people, light vehicles and stock on Monday next.

The stock sales are expected to be of renewed interest, and large numbers of animals will be on hand.

Happy, Healthy Children.

Any child can take Little Early Risers with perfect safety. They are harmless, never gripe or sicken, and yet they are so certain in results that robust constitutions requiring drastic means are never disappointed. They cannot fail to perform their mission, and every one who uses DeWitt's Little Early Risers prefer them to all other pills. They cure biliousness. Sold by J. Jas. Wood & Son, Druggists.

During the month of February damage suits to the sum of $71,500 were filed in the Fayette Circuit Court.

Well Again.

The many friends of John Blount will be pleased to learn that he has entirely recovered from his attack of rheumatism. Chamberlain's Pain Balm cured him after the best doctors in the town (Monmouth, Ind.) had failed to give relief. The prompt relief from pain which this liniment affords is alone worth many times its cost. For sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son.

Never before in the history of our business have we been so successful in reducing, in fact almost closing out our winter clothing. Our past four weeks reduced price sales left us the smallest kind of margin of profits. To close out the last Suit and Overcoat we have left, these profits—and losses on top of them—will be sacrificed in a sale beginning Wednesday morning, February 24th, and ending March 5th, that will be an epoch in Maysville's clothing business. Nothing in This Sale is Reserved Except Our New Spring Cravenette Coats. All of our Stein-Bloch, L. Adler Bros. and Garson, Meyer & Co.'s Suits and Overcoats are included in these slaughter offerings. Read the Reductions: All of our $8.50 and $10 Suits and Overcoats go at $6.50; all of our $12, $15 and $16.50 Suits and Overcoats go at $10; all of our $18.50, $20 and $22.50 Suits and Overcoats go at $15. All of These Rochester Made. To give the youngsters the greatest bargains we ever offered, one-third of the price of our Children's and Boy's Suits and Overcoats will be taken off during the sale. Spot cash will be the only terms. Money returned if displeased with your purchase. Don't miss this sale.

As Well Out of the World As Out of the Fashion.

After pursuing the policy of Premium Giving for several years we discarded it, but the custom has become so fixed in Maysville we find ourselves in odium for showing less generosity now than in the past. Therefore a return to Premium Giving is announced today. Heretofore we have used perforated tickets, but we will now issue

Premium Stamps

As a quicker and easier way to tally sales. We are in no way connected with any Trading Stamp concern. We supply our own books, Stamps and Premiums. We only issue books for $25, but we have Premiums, not alone for that amount, but for $50, $75 and $100—the value of two, three and four books respectively. Small buyers who would take a long time to fill several books are thus enabled to secure a handsome Premium in a short time by filling one, while others who shop for larger households can fill books rapidly and secure costlier Premiums by having two, three or four books redeemed.

Stamps are only given with Cash Purchases, never in settlement of bills, nor for cash sales after the day they are made. Adherence to these rules will prevent misunderstanding in the future. Friday we will give $1 worth of stamps to anyone who asks for them.

The Premiums are now on display. Ask to see them.

"It is the law of American politics that no man can make himself a candidate for President, and no man can prevent himself from being a candidate for President."—From a statement made by the late James G. Blaine.

THE Russian papers are very much wrought up over the "Anglo-Saxon peril," meaning Uncle Sam and Johnny Bull. Well, it's barely possible that these two old fellows have a few guns capable of penetrating even the name of a Russian Field Marshal.

IT isn't often that the Editor of THE LEDGER essays his own eulogy; but since his entry into Kentucky journalism on March 2d, 1867, —just thirty-seven years ago today,—there has been such a wonderful revolution in sentiment, even in Maysville and Mason county, that few indeed are those who know the trials attending the introduction of a Republican newspaper into this community. And although the story is not half told, the following letter from a sterling friend at St. Louis contains so much that will be "news" to others than the gentleman to whom he refers. THE LEDGER takes the liberty of printing it—

ST. LOUIS, February 27th, 1904.

My Good Friend Tom: You, like the lamented HANNA, will have to die before you have the good things said of that should be said to you.

Allow me, in a personal way, to relate a little gossip—an experience of recent date.

One of our friends, formerly of Maysville, remarked to me that he could not indorse your recent course politically. This good friend is our junior by a full score of years, so I gave him an epitome of your doings since I had known you. He was informed that you returned to our town before the great War was fairly ended, when he was an infant; that, against the advice of many of your friends, you started The Republican on its mission of well-doing; that you overcame obstacle after obstacle that threatened to down you. In those days the Democrats could safely count on 1,200 majority in Mason; in those days, business men who were not Democrats were boycotted; in those days, it was not deemed respectable by the majority for one to be a Republican. All this has been changed. Your pre-eminent social qualities, your broad and conservative management of your paper, were the causes.

Our friend was further informed that you had worked day and night for the good of the party, and without compensation, or even of proper recognition; that you owed the party nothing, but that the obligation was overwhelmingly the other way! The short term you were Postmaster you had ignored the old traditions, and had placed the office on a much higher plane, caused the town to be supplied with letter-boxes, free delivery, &c., &c., so it would, without further management on your part, become an office suitable for the place.

"Well, all this causes me to view matters very differently indeed: I am glad you gave me this information," our friend remarked.

He was further informed that you had at all times been foremost in advocating and materially aiding any enterprise that looked towards a betterment of our people; that you were broad politically, and had no special admiration for a man who claimed he never scratched a ticket; that you thought—and taught—to be a Republican was to be a Freeman. There were no dividing lines for you in our country—no North, no South, no East, no West for you—all Americans being your brothers. Many of your best friends are ex-Confederates and Democrats. The leaders on both sides of our Civil War are great Americans all, in your sight.

Tom, since being here, I heard Rabbi HARRISON deliver an address to the G. A. R. Memorial Day. The eloquent Rabbi makes good talk. He is a thorough American; he loves the Flag.

Nowhere have I ever seen the Flag with a more appropriate setting than in Temple Israel. It looks just right everywhere, out of place nowhere. General JOSHUA, the Father, the originator of all military organization, never saw an army with banners more terrible, with banners more Heaven-born than is ours.

My thoughts stray to Maysville—to the Cemetery, where on a day in May a little Flag and some flowers are placed over the resting-place of each and every American soldier sleeping there. These decorations may be a symbol; they should be a certificate that each occupant, whether he were the Blue or the Gray, was fully eligible as a recruit for the Hosts of Heaven.

Tom, you are my friend; Tom, I love my friends.

Stop... Coughing!

This is not a command—only a suggestion. We suggest that you stop that slight cough before it becomes too late. Oftentimes people say "Oh, it is only a slight cough; it will soon wear off." The cough grows worse, and they have to resort to strong medicine and perhaps have a long sickness. If in the beginning they had used a mild remedy they would have saved themselves and others a great deal of trouble and worry. There is nothing so annoying as a hacking cough; it not only disturbs the one who is coughing, but it disturbs and annoys every one who is in hearing. To those who are troubled with a cough we suggest a bottle of...

READ IT THROUGH.

'Twould Spoil This Story to Tell It in the Headlines.

To use an eighteenth century phrase, this is an "over true tale." Having happened in a small Virginia town in the winter of 1902, it is a story very much of the present. Up to a short time ago Mrs. John E. Harmon of Melfa Station, Va., had no personal knowledge of the rare curative properties of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. "Last January," she says, "my baby took a dreadful cold and at one time I feared she would have pneumonia but one of my neighbors told me how this remedy had cured her little boy and I began giving it to my baby at once and it soon cured her. I heartily thank the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for placing so great a cure within my reach. I cannot recommend it too highly or say too much in its favor. I hope all who read this will try it and be convinced as I was." For sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son.

The severest snowstorm in the history of the country prevails along the lines of the New York Central. It began Monday at 6 p. m. and has virtually put an embargo upon all railroad business, stalling trains and so far defying all efforts to relieve the situation. What amounts practically to good-bys between the operators and the miners of the Central Competitive District, comprising the states of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Western Pennsylvania, were spoken just before noon yesterday at Indianapolis. President Mitchell, on the other hand, declared that he will stand for the present scale being maintained.

Confirmation of the rumor from St. Petersburg that the Russians had sustained a severe loss in a fresh Japanese attack on Port Arthur, is given by the Yin Kow correspondent of The London Daily Telegraph. He says that 15 Japanese vessels began bombarding the port at 10 o'clock Monday. The cruisers Novik, Askold and Bayan and four torpedo boats went out to meet the Japanese. The Retvisan, as before, also assisted, although beached. The Novik led the other ships and impetuously made for the enemy, maneuvering at full speed and firing first her fore and then her after batteries. She received the fire of the whole Japanese fleet but was not silenced. The Novik concentrated her fire on the Japanese flagship before she retired into the inner harbor and a column of smoke and fire, says the writer, was seen rising from the vessel fired upon. The Russian vessels were compelled to retreat, the Novik and Bayan being badly damaged and the Askold in a sinking condition. The Retvisan also suffered further injury. The Japanese, however, withdrew in good order, according to the correspondent. Reports from Russian sources are to the effect that today was set for a combined land and naval assault on Port Arthur. A dispatch from St. Petersburg says it is rumored that a desperate naval engagement is still progressing.

Postoffice Agent Rising is at Flemingsburg looking over the territory for the establishment of four new rural routes in Fleming.

Sam Davis, who was shot by Jerry Hunt during a crap game at Flemingsburg a week or so ago, died Saturday night. Hunt has not yet been arrested. Governor Beckham has offered a reward of $350 for his capture and Fleming county will probably offer $50 or $75.

Charles Kahlo, of Indianapolis, member of Governor Durbin's staff, shot himself to death yesterday morning in his room at Knoxville, Tenn. He was a representative of the American Manufacturers' Association and had been there since February 26th trying to place Indiana oil stock. Kahlo had been drinking heavily, but has been sober the past day or two. He was a Counsel to Australia under President Benjamin Harrison and Captain in the Federal Army.

Cold Cause Pneumonia.

One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep seated on the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength. Sold by J. Jas. Wood & Son, Druggists."

Dr. W. L. McEwan, recently elected to the Presidency of Central University, Danville, will make no statement until he receives a visit from the Notification Committee, which will be in a day or two.

Before long the rules governing the bestowal of the Victoria Cross will be altered. It has long been felt in England that the cross should be awarded not so much for an act of bravery in saving an individual life as for an act of bravery benefiting the Nation, or the particular fighting section of it to which the individual belongs. The amendment of the rules will be based on this wider interpretation of an act of bravery.

There is much excitement at Meridian, Miss., over the arrest of Jim Paris, colored, charged with the killing of Postal Clerk Stockton. By order of the Governor the Meridian Rifles and the Waltham Guards, under command of Major Demont, have been ordered there to protect the Jail. Bass, the wounded Clerk, has identified Paris as the one who fired the shooting. Paris states another man fired the shots which resulted in the death of Stockton, and the serious wounding of Bass. Bass is in a critical condition.

Exploits of Notorious Hoodlum Who Wants $15,000

One-legged Elmer McCabe, one of Covington's 19-year-old hoodlums, was before Judge Moore yesterday.

With Maury Blackman and Charles Mullen, both lads of tender age, he attacked and unmercifully assaulted a young man named Melvin Woodard.

He was fined $10 and the others $5 and costs each.

McCabe will be remembered as one of the three hoboes who was roosting on the C. and O. track at the Station in this city several years ago when No. 4 came along, killed one instantly, fixed another so he died some time later, and swiped a leg off this worthy.

Of course, willing lawyers were found, and the Railway Company is asked to pay $15,000 apiece to these estimable gentlemen.

GERMAN SYRUP.

We want to impress on our readers that Boschee's German Syrup is positively the only preparation on the market today that does relieve and cure consumption. It contains the specifics, such as pure tar, extracts of gum, etc., which have been so highly indorsed for the cure of coughs, colds, and consumption by the great medical congresses. The consumptive, whether his disease is in the throat or lungs, must have rest at night, and be free from the spasms of dry and racking cough in the morning. The diseased parts want rest, healing and soothing treatment, and the patient needs fresh air, good food, etc. German Syrup will give free and easy expectation in the morning with speed and permanent relief. Small bottles, 25c; regular size, containing nearly four times as much, 75c. At Henry W. Ray's Drugstore.

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, uric acid, catarrh of the bladder and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work and in private practice, and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all good druggists. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

BRAIN LEAKS.

LUXURY—Indulgence, or gratification of taste or sense without benefit other than that of possession.
NECESSITY—Indispensable; requisite to contentment; an object necessary to well being.
INVESTMENT—The purchase of an article from which an income is derived.
PLEASURE—Gratification; enjoyment.

TO WHICH CLASS DO PIANOS BELONG?

Most certainly not to the first class, for there is much benefit in a piano other than that of mere possession.

THEREFORE, PIANOS ARE NOT A LUXURY.

At first glance it would not seem that they belonged to the second class, either, yet a piano is "A REQUISITE TO CONTENTMENT." A piano is also "AN OBJECT NECESSARY TO WELL BEING." Yes, on second thought we believe that Webster would say that a piano was a necessity, especially to a well ordered household.

PIANOS ARE SURELY A GOOD INVESTMENT.

The child derives a musical education that provides a sure, steady income, no matter what adversity overtakes it.

PIANOS ARE CERTAINLY A PLEASURE.

A piano affords untold enjoyment, and the gratification of knowing that you have secured your loved ones against adversity is certainly worth some effort.

The NECESSITY of providing for adverse circumstances demands the PLEASURE of an INVESTMENT in a piano. See our samples at
